

ORDER TO REVOKE A PROHIBITION ORDER

HEALTH COMPLAINTS ACT 2016 Section 100

On 28 October 2019 pursuant to section 95 of the Health Complaints Act 2016 (Act), the Health Complaints Commissioner (Commissioner) made a Prohibition Order against the general health service provider named below.

Pursuant to section 100 of the Act, the Acting Commissioner has decided to make an Order to revoke that Prohibition Order (the Revocation Order).

Name of the general health service provider to which the Revocation Order applies:	Cynthia Weinstein of Toorak in the State of Victoria
Date and Time of the Revocation Order:	14 April 2022 at 11.59pm
Effect of the Revocation Order:	The Prohibition Order made by the Commissioner on 28 October 2019 is revoked.
Reason for the Revocation Order:	On 30 March 2022, the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) made an order to set aside the Prohibition Order made by the Commissioner on 28 October 2019 against the above-named general health service provider. Accordingly, it is appropriate to revoke the Prohibition Order made on 28 October 2019. A copy of the Order to Revoke the Prohibition Order will be published in the Victoria Government Gazette and on the Internet site of the Health Complaints Commissioner.

In this Revocation Order ‘general health service’ and ‘general health service provider’ have the same meaning as in section 3 of the Health Complaints Act 2016.

This Revocation Order takes effect on the service of this Order on the general health service provider to whom it applies.

In accordance with section 100 of the Act, this Revocation Order will be published in the Victoria Government Gazette and on the Internet site of the Health Complaints Commissioner, www.hcc.vic.gov.au.

Dorota Siarkiewicz
Acting Health Complaints Commissioner
