On 8 April 2022, pursuant to section 90 of the Health Complaints Act 2016 (Act), the Health Complaints Commissioner (Commissioner) made an Interim Prohibition Order against the general health service provider named below. That Interim Prohibition Order was due to expire on 30 June 2022.

Pursuant to section 94 of the Act, the Commissioner has decided to make an Order to revoke that Interim Prohibition Order (the Revocation Order).

Name of the general health service provider to which the Revocation Order applies:	Matthew William Nettleton of Melbourne in the State of Victoria.
Date of the Revocation Order:	1 June 2022
Effect of the Revocation Order:	The Interim Prohibition Order made by the Commissioner on 8 April 2022 is revoked.
Reason for the Revocation Order:	The Commissioner's investigation remains ongoing. To avoid a serious risk to the health, safety or welfare of the public, the Commissioner has decided to make a new Interim Prohibition Order under the Act. This Revocation Order takes effect on the service of this Order on the general health service provider to whom it applies.

In accordance with section 94 of the Act, this Revocation Order will be published in the Victoria Government Gazette and on the Internet site of the Health Complaints Commissioner, www.hcc.vic.gov.au.
