

INTERIM PROHIBITION ORDER

HEALTH COMPLAINTS ACT 2016

Section 90

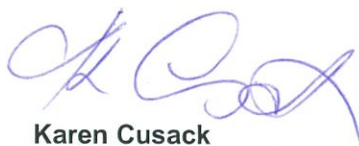

This order is made pursuant to section 90 of the Health Complaints Act 2016.

The Health Complaints Commissioner (Commissioner) has made this Interim Prohibition Order because the Commissioner reasonably believes that the general health service provider named below has contravened a code of conduct applying to the general health service being provided and is satisfied that it is necessary to make this order to avoid a serious risk to the health, safety or welfare of the public.

Name of the general health service provider on whom the Interim Prohibition Order is imposed:	Robert Frank Mittiga (also known as Robert Frank and/or Roberto Cialdini).
Date this Interim Prohibition Order is made:	5 February 2019
Date on which this Interim Prohibition Order expires:	An Interim Prohibition Order can remain in force for up to 12 weeks. This Interim Prohibition Order will remain in force until 29 April 2019 while an investigation is conducted unless it is varied or revoked before that date.
Effect of this Interim Prohibition Order:	The general health service provider named above must not: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Advertise, or cause to be advertised in Victoria, any general health service, paid or otherwise, in a clinical or non-clinical capacity; 2. Offer, or cause to be offered in Victoria, any general health service, paid or otherwise, in a clinical or non-clinical capacity; or 3. Provide, or cause to be provided in Victoria, any general health service, paid or otherwise, in a clinical or non-clinical capacity.

This Interim Prohibition Order takes effect on the service of the order on the general health service provider to whom it applies.

This Order will be published in the Victoria Government Gazette and on the Internet site of the Health Complaints Commissioner, www.hcc.vic.gov.au.
