

HEALTH COMPLAINTS ACT 2016
Section 90

Interim Prohibition Order

This Interim Prohibition Order is made pursuant to section 90 of the Health Complaints Act 2016.

The Health Complaints Commissioner (the Commissioner) has made this Interim Prohibition Order because the Commissioner reasonably believes that the general health service provider named below has contravened a code of conduct applying to the general health service being provided and is satisfied that it is necessary to make this order to avoid a serious risk to the health, safety or welfare of the public.

Name of the general health service provider on whom the order is imposed:	Diana Igescu of Taggerty in the State of Victoria
Date this Interim Prohibition Order is made:	6 December 2019
Date on which this Interim Prohibition Order expires:	An Interim Prohibition Order can remain in force for up to 12 weeks. This Interim Prohibition Order will remain in force until 27 February 2020 while an investigation is conducted unless it is varied or revoked before that date.
Effect of this Interim Prohibition Order:	The general health service provider named above must not: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Advertise, or cause to be advertised, any general health service, paid or otherwise, in a clinical or non-clinical capacity; 2. Offer, or cause to be offered, any general health service, paid or otherwise, in a clinical or non-clinical capacity; 3. Provide, or cause to be provided, any general health service, paid or otherwise, in a clinical or non-clinical capacity; 4. Establish, direct or otherwise, operate any business that conducts any of the above activities.

This Interim Prohibition Order takes effect on the service of the order on the general health service provider to whom it applies.

This Order will be published in the Victoria Government Gazette and on the Internet site of the Health Complaints Commissioner, www.hcc.vic.gov.au.
