

HEALTH COMPLAINTS ACT 2016
Section 95
Prohibition Order

This Prohibition Order is made pursuant to section 95 of the Health Complaints Act 2016 (Act).

The Health Complaints Commissioner (Commissioner) has made this Prohibition Order because the Commissioner has completed an investigation under Part 4 of the Act and is satisfied that:

- the general health service provider named below has contravened a code of conduct applying to the general health service, and
- it is necessary to make this Prohibition Order to avoid a serious risk to the health, safety or welfare of the public.

Name of the general health service provider on whom the Prohibition Order is imposed:	Dennis Wayne Jensen of North Warrandyte, Victoria, 3113
Date this Prohibition Order is made:	7 August 2018
Date on which this Prohibition Order expires:	Until varied or revoked by order of the Commissioner.
Effect of this Prohibition Order:	The general health service provider named above is prohibited from: a) providing any general health services to any person in a clinical or non-clinical capacity whether or not those services are paid for or provided free of charge; b) claiming or representing that he is qualified, able or willing to cure cancer or any other serious disease or illness; or c) supplying, promoting or recommending to any person any product, therapy or other treatment (including black salve) that he claims can cure or treat cancer or any other serious disease or illness.

This Prohibition Order takes effect on the service of the Prohibition Order on the general health service provider to whom it applies.

This Prohibition Order will be published in the Victoria Government Gazette and on the website of the Health Complaints Commissioner at www.hcc.vic.gov.au.
